FINANCIAL ARRANGEMENTS

Each of the partners will strongly endeavour to promote the exchange of academic staff and students, joint research projects and joint research guidance between the two institutions by

- helping to secure grants.
- providing facilities for visiting staff members and students.
- individual counseling.
- promoting kachchhi heritage & culture.

In order to realize the objectives of this agreement, the partners will make use of their own means insofar as such funds are available. Furthermore, they will endeavour to gain financial support from national and International Institutions.

This Cooperation will initially involve exploration of common interests in the areas of Kachchhi, Sindhi & English and Studies. Individual sister faculties and departments can declare through their Deans their willingness to cooperate within the framework of this agreement. Such joint declarations will come into effect as soon as the responsible bodies of both universities have taken note of and agreed upon them.

This agreement is first valid for five years. It can then be extended for further periods of five years within the six months prior to each expiration date.

As witness to their subscription to the above, the representatives of the KSKV University of Kachchh and the Banni Sindhu Seva Sangh, Gorevali Banni. Ta. Bhuj hereunto provided their endorsement.
